

The Elementary Institute of Science

The Elementary Institute of Science (EIS) held its Open House on Sunday, January 11, 2004.

EIS is a premiere science and technology learning center that nurtures the intellectual curiosity of hundreds of students ages 7-13 each year.

The Ribbon Cutting Ceremony included remarks from Councilman Charles Lewis, County Supervisor Ron Roberts, State Assemblywoman Shirley Horton, the Joseph Jacobs Family and the Tom Watts Family. Hundreds of community supporters attended this ceremony and visited the new EIS facility for the first time.

EIS is currently accepting enrollment for the Spring Program which begins February 17, 2004. Please call 619-263-2302 for more information.

Left to right: EIS Board President Dr. Donald Short, Councilman Charles Lewis, Former EIS Executive Director Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson, Assemblywoman Shirley Horton and Supervisor Ron Roberts.

Left to right: Mr. Joe Vazquez, Dr. Michael Hager, Mr. Robert Cademy, EIS Ambassador Mr. Walter Green, Mrs. Vi Jacobs, Dr. Joseph Jacobs, Mrs. Valerie Jacobs Hapke, EIS Founder's wife Doris Watts and granddaughter Sarah Woo, Maya Solomon and Dr. Robert Matthews.